Eludes Pursuit After Successful
Get-Away from Matteawan
Insane Asylum

MOTHER REJOICES OVER
ESCAPE—DENIES PLOT

Probably Safe from Extradition;
Evelyn Nesbit in Terror
Over Escape

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Aug. 18.—Harold Barnum, gate-keeper at Matteawan asylum has been arrested and charged with bribery and negligence of duty in connection with Harry Thaw's escape. Warrants were also issued for the arrest of Thomas Flood, Eugene Duffy, Richard O'Keefe, Roger Thompson and Richard Butler who are alleged to have aided in Thaw's escape.

Thaw Eludes Pittsfield Police
PITTSFIELD, Mass., Aug. 18.—Harry Thaw, who escaped from the Matteawan Insane Asylum early yesterday, eluded the police here after remaining all night at a local hotel. He escaped in an automobile at daylight. The police are pursuing Thaw. They say their identification of Thaw was positive.

Headed for Boston
BOSTON, Aug. 18.—Advices to the police here say that Harry Thaw is heading for Boston. If he should be arrested here he will be held pending orders from New York. It is not believed here that he is extraditable.

Not Extraditable, Says Swift
FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 18.—Attorney General Swift today gave his opinion that Thaw is not extraditable from Massachusetts.

Seen in Danbury
DANBURY, Conn., Aug. 18.—Fleeing from Matteawan, Harry Thaw stopped here yesterday, bought a cigar, then departed. He had been frequently seen here previously, motoring with asylum guards, therefore his presence in the city created no suspicion.

Connivance Suspected
NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—An investigation began at Matteawan today to determine if there was connivance at Harry Thaw's escape.

Dr. Carlos McDonald, a witness in the last Thaw habeas corpus proceeding, today expressed the opinion that Thaw if permitted to remain free will resume the use of liquor and drugs. He said:

"Thaw's insanity is incurable. It is progressive. The moment he starts to drink his mind will revert to the delusion that he is being persecuted, and he is likely to attack an imaginary enemy."

Acting District Attorney Wasservogel stated that Thaw cannot be extradited but that police authorities anywhere can arrest him as a dangerous character. Thaw's mother and sister arrived here yesterday expecting to visit him today. Mrs. Thaw openly rejoiced over his escape but denies knowledge of any plot for his escape.

Thaw's mother received a letter from Thaw postmarked at a New York substation. It was scrawled in pencil and read: "All well. I will take rest before coming to Elmhurst as I might be asked for interviews and want to refuse. I don't care to make any statement yet. Hope sister is well and that you will go home together. Signed H. K. T."

Kansas Suffers Drouth for Hog Raising Record

ZION CITY, Ill., Aug. 18.—Wilbur Glenn Voliva, the leader of Dr. Dowie's "Zion City," declared here today that he has known for months of the approaching of the Kansas drouth. He said:

"Kansas and an adjoining state is being punished for being the world's greatest hog section. The drouth is the Lord's warning that he will not send rain to raise flesh to pollute the people."

WILSON'S PEACE PLAN REACHES HUERTA

Reply Expected Tonight or Tomorrow—News Became Known Today

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—It became known today that President Wilson's mediation plan has been presented to Provisional President Huerta through diplomatic channels. A reply is expected tonight or tomorrow.

MEXICAN SITUATION AS TO
U. S. IS NOW HANGING FIRE
WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Encouraged by their success in getting their views before Provisional President Huerta, administration officials are now resting on their heels waiting for the move which Mexico City is to make. The new development in the situation will be a reply by the Mexican government.

The belief here is that the situation will hang fire for several days, probably until the latter part of the week, and that even then no definite indication of the Huerta government's attitude towards the Wilson plan may be forthcoming.

It would be the part of wisdom, students of international policies here believe, for Huerta to permit the general terms of the administration proposals to be made known to the Mexican public in order that his followers might sound out sentiment towards his candidacy in a constitutional campaign.

There is considerable uncertainty in official circles here now as to the reliability of the reports from Mexico City of the last few days that the American communication was handed to Minister Gambo by John Lind himself instead of by Charge d'Affaires O'Shaughnessy. Officials here announced soon after Lind's departure that the documents would be transmitted by the charge in the regular fashion and that no complications would be invited by having Lind deliver them in person.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Testifying before the house "insidious lobby" probers today, ex-Chief Page McMichael of the house declared that he had been promised a job in Washington if he supported Representative McDermott of Illinois against the evidence adduced by Col. Mulhall. He denied that he had ever characterized Mulhall as a "dope fiend and a diabolical liar."

McMichael admitted that he never saw the $7,500 that McDermott told him later he got from the pawn shark bill. "But," McMichael added, "I got fifty dollars of it."

THAW ESCAPE REPORTED TO ACTING GOV. GLYNN

State Supt. of Prisons and Head of Matteawan Each Recognize Glynn

ALBANY, Aug. 18.—The governorship tangle is causing worry among the business men. It was reported today that an organization of taxpayers will initiate an action to secure a ruling in the case.

State Superintendent of Prisons Riley, a Sulzer appointee, recognized Acting Governor Glynn today by presenting him the details of Harry Thaw's escape from Matteawan. Superintendent Kieb of Matteawan Insane Asylum also reported the Thaw incident to Acting Governor Glynn.

$2,000,000 FUND FOR
ATTACK ON TAMMANY
ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 18.—A national campaign against Tammany, backed by a $2,000,000 fund and directed by a country-wide committee, was indicated today in telegrams exchanged between Thomas W. Lawson and Lynn J. Arnold, president of the Knickerbocker Press of this city.

Lawson, who promised a few days ago to give $100,000 and to undertake the raising of twenty times that sum for fighting the Tammany organization, says New York city and state are under control of the "system," and that Sulzer's impeachment can be made an opportunity "to let daylight into the black cave where works the system's machinery."

WAR AND TYPHOON
FATAL ON CHINA
LONDON, Aug. 18.—Five thousand people were killed including thirty-five hundred civilians in the recent fighting at Canton, according to advices received here. It is also stated that the Canton mint was looted of $1,000,000 in gold.

SAN FRANCISCO TO
THE MISSION PLAY
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—San Francisco's welcome is to be extended to John Stephen McGroarty tomorrow by the Portola Festival Committee. The California historian and author will be the guest of honor at a luncheon at the St. Francis given by the committee. Mr. McGroarty will deliver an address on the significance of his Mission Play.

The Mission Play, according to members of the Portola Festival Committee, is regarded as a unique and beautiful phase of California life, and of value to the state; and it is because of this fact as well as of the play's artistic qualities, that McGroarty is to be the guest of honor Tuesday.

CHINESE WAR HAS ADVANCED DEMAND FOR THE GOSPEL
CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—The China agency of the American Bible society reports issues for the first six months of nearly 1,000,000 Bibles and testaments. If this rate of issue continues during the year, it may be expected to reach 2,000,000 copies. The agent adds:

"Notwithstanding the sending out of this enormous number of scriptures, we were unable to supply all that were called for. Amid wars and rumors of wars which the newspapers now record, such facts are the more extraordinary. It would seem as though thus far the disturbance in China had fallen out for the furtherance of the gospel."

THIRTY-EIGHT LIVES ARE LOST IN WRECK

State of California Is Reported to Have Gone Down in Alaskan Waters

SEATTLE, Aug. 18.—The "State of California" was grounded while negotiating Stevens Pass in Gambier Bay, Frederick Sound, Sunday. Thirty-eight are reported lost.

They claim that absolutely no other information has been received. They deny knowledge of the names of the dead.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 18.—Among the passengers of the State of California were John Vanderlas, Clara Vanderlas, J. Terrass and Clara Terrass, all of Los Angeles.

WHITE SLAVE CASE UP IN SENATE

Tillman Cites Diggs-Caminetti Case as Result of Easy Divorce Laws

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—The Diggs-Caminetti case was discussed in the senate today when Senator Tillman of South Carolina declared that easy divorce laws enabled men to secure victims. He referred to the case while speaking against woman suffrage. He said:

"If the Diggs-Caminetti affair had occurred in the South the fathers of the girls would have killed the two wife deserters like dogs and would have been acquitted. It appears to me the relation between divorce and woman suffrage is one of mutual acceleration."

WHITE SLAVE LAWYER

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—A fine of $100 or ten days in jail penalty was fixed today on Attorney R. C. # S. P. DISPUTES POWER OF STATE

Seeks to Enjoin R. R. Commission from Hindering Proposed Certificate Issue

SUES BEFORE U. S. COURT; STATE COUNTERS ATTACK

Says S. P. Must Go to Supreme Court of State for Review of Commission's Ruling

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—A suit involving the authority of the State Railroad Commission to authorize or refuse note issues by railroads was begun before Federal Judge Van Fleet today, the Southern Pacific seeking to enjoin the commission, attorney general and district attorney from contemplated criminal proceedings against the road in case it issues $6,000,000 worth of car trust equipment certificates.

The state authorities met the move by filing a motion to dismiss the application.

The motion for dismissal was based on these grounds:

First, that a court of equity has no jurisdiction to enjoin criminal prosecution.

Second, that the federal court has no jurisdiction over the case because it is in effect an action against the State of California.

Third, that the Southern Pacific has a speedy and adequate remedy at law, that being the privilege to carry the State Railroad Commission's ruling directly to the state supreme court for review.

The Southern Pacific intends buying rolling stock and other equipment for state and interstate use with the proceeds of the proposed issue.

Huntington Beach News: City Engineer G. W. Spencer submitted at an adjourned meeting of the city trustees Monday evening a report regarding the building of a sewer system, as follows:

In making my estimate I have been guided both by the present and the future requirements of the city and have planned sewer mains which can be extended from time to time and eventually meet the requirements of the total area of the city. I have, however, restricted their length in the present estimate to such an extent as is, in my judgment, justified by the present population of the city. The estimate embraces first: a 20-inch sewer either along Ocean avenue or along the alley between Ocean avenue and Walnut street, extending from First street to the first alley west of Thirtieth street to be known as the Ocean Front Main Sewer. Second: a 16-inch main sewer following different streets and alleys from the corner of First street and Ocean avenue to the corner of Florida and Indiana streets, following as nearly as may be the line of the Pacific Electric railway track to Santa Ana, to be known as the Vista del Mar Main Sewer. Third: a 22-inch main sewer from the junction of the Ocean Front and the Vista del Mar Main, southeasterly along Ocean avenue to a septic tank, and fourth: a septic tank with an outlet into the ocean to be placed either on the beach or on the low ground immediately back from the beach, approximately a quarter of a mile from the corner of First street and Ocean avenue. The Ocean Front Main is designed to serve all that territory between Twenty-third street and Lake avenue, lying between the Crest avenue hill and the ocean and all that territory within the city limits lying to the northwest of Twenty-third street. The Vista del Mar Main is designed to serve all that territory north of Crest avenue and east of Twenty-third street in addition to all east of Lake avenue. There are some small areas in the eastern and northeastern portions of the city which lie so low as to render it impossible to conduct their sewage by gravity alone to the ocean and this sewage can, at the proper future time, either be brought together and pumped into the mains or disposed of on the low lands to the east of the city. The total cost of the above outlined system I estimate to be $20,000, exclusive of rights of way—$1,000 of this amount to be deducted if the Ocean Front Main is placed in Ocean avenue, instead of in the alley.

The report was merely accepted and ordered filed and a committee was named to act with the city engineer in securing a location for a septic tank and report to the next meeting.

HAWKEYES PICNIC AT LONG BEACH ON SAT., THE 23 RD.

The officers of the Iowa Association of southern California and the officers and committees of the Long Beach local association are all busy with the last plans for the great annual summer outing for the Iowans of Southern California. The former residents of the Hawkeye state will go to Bixby Park, Long Beach, Saturday, August 23, for all day jolly reunion under the shade of the trees of the shaded park. People will come in

Anty Drudge—"Well, that one is past helping and crying for, but if you will get a cake of Fels-Naptha Soap I'll show you how to get another one clean in a hurry, in cool or lukewarm water, with very little work."

How long your clothes last depends not on how much they are worn, but on how often they are washed. That is, if they are washed in the old-fashioned way.

Boiling hurts any clothes. And hard rubbing on the washboard wears them out.

You avoid this by washing the Fels-Naptha way in cool or lukewarm water. Boiling and hard-rubbing are unnecessary, because Fels-Naptha Soap dissolves the dirt.

Be sure to follow the easy directions on the red and green wrapper.

from all over Southern California, and there will be thousands of reunions of those who have perhaps not met for ten to forty years. The basket picnic dinner is always a great feature of the day and 500 gallons of coe will be given to those wearing the official badges of the association. There will be a bevy of pretty girls on the grounds to supply the badges at a small price and all the expenses of the picnic are covered in this way. When all are supplied with a good Iowa picnic dinner, President Rominger will be ready to call off the program.

While this is always a minor consideration with the Iowans you may always be sure of some good jolly talks from the old Iowans who are here in large numbers. One special feature will be the presentation of a beautiful souvenir badge to the one on the grounds who has lived longest in the good old Hawkeye state. Another will be the Iowa songs, words and music by Iowans. Among the speakers will be new men to the picnic area.

As most of the people go for the social part of the reunion there will be no long speeches, but jolly five minute talks only. Among the speakers will be Hon. A. P. Fleming, Paul Shoup, Dr. David P. Ward, Col. E. T. Langley of Santa Ana, Prof. H. M. Rebock of Santa Monica, Rev. H. E. McGrew of Whittier, Hon. A. H. Stateman of Tustin. The popular county plan for registration will be carried out, so all may find old friends.

A special committee will have the speakers' stand decorated as much like an Iowa stand as possible and may have some surprises for Iowans. Hon. J. A. Rominger, president of the Iowa Association, and Hon. M. E. McNie, president of the Long Beach local association, with their committees, will have all details worked out and everything in readiness.

ASSASSINATION OF KITCHENER PLOTTED BY THE EGYPTIANS

LONDON, Aug. 18.—The Daily Express prints a story to the effect that the government has learned of a plot by the Egyptian nationalists to assassinate Viscount Kitchener, agent and consul general in Egypt since 1911. Lord Kitchener is now in England.

The Scotland authorities are looking for an Egyptian student who was lately at Oxford and who is alleged to have been engaged in the plot for the assassination of Lord Kitchener through an Egyptian nationalist society. This student is closely associated with Mohammed Farid Bey, the notorious Egyptian nationalist extremist.

It was Farid Bey who at the national Egyptian congress at Brussels in September, 1910, denounced Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, who had been stirring England up for its alleged neglect of affairs in Egypt, the "threat bearer of Sir Edward Grey," the British minister of foreign affairs.

NATIONAL CAMPAIGN TO IMPROVE HEALTH OF SCHOOL CHILDREN

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—An aggressive nation-wide campaign to improve the health and efficiency of 20,000,000 public school children in the United States will be launched at Buffalo during the week of August 25, according to an announcement made today by Dr. Thomas A. Storey, of the College of the City of New York, in a statement giving the detailed plans of the Fourth International Congress on School Hygiene.

The urgent need of school reform will be one of the principal topics discussed by the 300 speakers on the program at Buffalo. Attention will be called to the prevailing bad conditions in the schools of many leading cities—conditions which it is declared by Dr. Storey tend to show that tax payers are now compelled to pay out money at a great loss on their public school investment. In this connection many speakers will point out the findings made by the medical inspectors in their respective communities. According to statistics which Dr. Storey received today, several million school children are suffering from such common troubles as eye strain, decayed teeth, obstructions in the nose and throat, skin diseases, defective hearing and nervous diseases as well as physical deformities.

Delegates will be asked to secure passage of laws in every state requiring all public school children to be tested as to hearing and sight. Special attention also will be paid to the problems of testing school children to learn if they are mentally fit to attend regular classes or whether they should be put in special classes for backward children. Among other subjects which will be discussed will be "Tuberculosis Among School Children," "Open Air Schools," "Sex Hygiene," "The Condition of School Houses," "Children as Carriers of Disease," "School Lunches," and "Fighting the Hookworm."

REACHED 106 BY LIVING MOSTLY AS HE PLEASED

PARIS, Aug. 18.—Pierre Schamel-Roy, the only living man whose name ever elapsed that of Napoleon Bonaparte, today celebrated his 106th birthday by rising at 5 o'clock and taking a long walk through the streets of Neuilly and along the banks of the Seine. Later in the day he was tendered an informal reception by fellow imperialists. Quite poor, unmarried, Roy lives in a two-room apartment, his only income being a government pension of 30 cents a day. Imperialist sympathizers occasionally help the old man with donations. His mind is as clear as a bell, his hand is perfectly steady, yet he was "playboy" to the King of Rome, Napoleon's beloved "L'Aiglon," in the palace at Versailles. It was only at St. Helena that Roy remembers seeing the Emperor. He saw him four times.

Until Roy was 60 years old he was rather a heavy drinker. He drank wine. Since then, he has drunk milk principally, though now and then he still takes a glass of wine with meals. He has never taken any particular care of himself, attributing his long life to open-air walks, lack of excesses, save drinking "when he was a young man," and to the fact that his mother and father both were very young when he was born, the one being 17, and the other 19. He has always eaten whatever and as much as he chose.

"I have lived through the reigns," said Roy, "of two emperors and three kings, not counting nine presidents under the Third Republic. Yet, as you see me today, I can read and write without glasses, and mend my own clothes. I learned to sew when very young and later was costumer at the opera. Never having had a wife, the knowledge served me in good stead."

"You ask me whom I believe to be the greatest man since Napoleon. My answer is that there has been none since to stand a comparison. Eugenics, I believe more than any other one thing, have been responsible for my 106 years. Eugenics seems to be modern enough as a study, but I'm an example of the children sane and healthy young couples can bring into the world when properly mated. I never married because I was happy enough as a bachelor. It was not because I had no use for women. Why, you know," and here Roy smiled again regally, "I flirted with the fair sex until I was 85."

PUT ON PROBATION DRINK HIS TROUBLE

Los Angeles Times: W. A. Crippen is one of the most fortunate men in Los Angeles. After being convicted of stealing an automobile during a period when a special campaign is being waged against this class of offenders he was placed on three years' probation by Superior Judge Oster, yesterday.

The curious feature of the trial was that Attorney Schenck for the accused worked so upon the sympathies of the jurors that five held out for acquittal for five hours. This, in the face of uncontradicted evidence that Crippen was apprehended near San Luis Obispo while riding unconcernedly along in the stolen vehicle. At last the jury agreed to return a verdict of guilty on the understanding that a committee of the twelve would wait on the judge to recommend probation. Judge Oster told the jurors it was not permissible to do more than offer a recommendation for leniency.

Yesterday Attorney Schenck put the sister of the defendant on the stand to testify to his previous good character. Others said that Crippen's only weakness is a fondness for drink. The defendant also gave a frank account of his escapades when he admitted he was under the influence of liquor. Judge Oster said that one condition of the probation is that Crippen take a liquor cure and abstain from all intoxicating drinks for three years.

COMMENCED ON CHURCHES

Evangelists Are to Lead in a Fight that is to be Made Against Saloons

Rev. Brown Urges Church Members to Return to Old Standards of Purity

ANAHEIM, Aug. 18.—What promises to be one of the greatest revival campaigns that has been conducted in the county opened yesterday in this city. It is being conducted by the noted evangelists Revs. Brown and Curry. One thousand people gathered at the immense tent at the corner of Lemon and Broadway eager to listen to Mr. Brown again. There seems to be more interest in the meetings than ever before from the fact that the successful evangelists are to lead the anti-saloon fight that is being carried on by the churches of this city.

Instead of hitting the saloon during his first sermon as many had anticipated, Rev. Brown hammered the members of the churches, the manner in which the homes were conducted and the individuals.

He took for his text, James 2:17, "But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy."

He said in part "What kind of religion have you got? As a church I believe we have drifted away from the old standard of purity. What is religion? Call it what you may, but let me tell you your religion will not always save you. I am going to talk to you as to the purity of the city in which you reside. Do you know anything about the city you live in? I believe in being a booster for a city if it is for the betterment and uplift of the city. This is a revival campaign we are to carry on, and if the church going folks, the homes get right here, then the hell holes will fall off, for after the people get converted there will be no room for them here. Look at the city of yours until you see it. I believe in peace, too, but there will be no peace until this terrible vice is stamped out. I have always found it the case that when the city is away down morally the church in that city is away down spiritually. Don't invite young converts to join your church when it is in a bad condition. They had better stay out. Where are the old fashioned homes and the family altar? The stand on which the old family Bible used to lay is removed to make room for the parlor dance and the card tables. How can you have a family altar with a dirty pack of cards in the home. The hymn book with the good gospel songs is put away in the bookcase and in place of it the children are allowed to sing and play the rag-time songs. If you want to bring up rag-time kids, why just fill your home with rag-time music."

Fullerton people are so interested in the big campaign that have arranged to have an auto truck service so that they may attend the meetings. There will be two meetings daily, afternoon and evening.

COLON, Aug. 18.—The time limit has expired for the registration of Chinese in the Republic of Panama, the payment of fees by those domiciled in the country, the production of photographs and other stipulations of the recent anti-Chinese law. Chinese of Colon numbering 500 ignored the law and made a joint protest that they were legally advised that the decree was unconstitutional. The matter will be referred to the supreme court.

SIAM'S KING PLANS TO WIN AMERICAN WOMAN FOR QUEEN

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—Mrs. Clara Williams of Bangkok, Siam, has arrived in San Francisco and asserts that the young king of Siam is a great admirer of American women and intends to make one of them his queen. When his majesty visited the United States as the crown prince he was infatuated with a well-known American actress of great beauty and it was reported at that time that he offered his royal hand and heart to her, but she declined the proposal. As the king is a college graduate, highly cultured, a poet and exceedingly personable in his appearance and manners, he is very likely to find an American wife if he looks long enough for one.

COTTONSEED OIL REFINERY PLANNED

EL CENTRO TO HAVE FIRST PLANT OF KIND TO BE ERRECTED IN CALIFORNIA

EL CENTRO, Aug. 18.—A contract for the erection of a cottonseed oil refinery, first in the state, has been let by the Imperial Valley Oil & Cotton Company at El Centro. The product of the El Centro oil mill, the only one in the state, heretofore has been sent to Los Angeles to be used there in the manufacture of soap.

R. E. Lane of Texas has arrived to take charge of the new works, and his first task will be the erection of the refinery. Work will start this week. The refined oil will be used for cooking purposes for which millions of gallons of oil now come from the south. El Centro oil is expected to find a place in all the cities of the coast.

Wm. Catto and family and Miss Edith Hanson and Kenneth Hanson, who have been occupying the Hanson home on the bay, returned to their homes in Upland the latter part of the week.

PERCENTAGE OF DIVORCEES UP

Los Angeles Examiner: Los Angeles divorcees are romantically inclined in their subsequent matrimonial experiments, according to figures given out yesterday by State Statistician Leslie. A large percentage, both of divorced brides and bridegrooms, are married in what he terms the "Chapel of Love."

Santa Ana. The other Gretna Green of California is San Rafael, across the bay from San Francisco, and this is designated as "Love's Haven."

"The gay divorcees, even more than the lovelorn maid, keeps busy with Cupid in the secrecy of Santa Ana or San Rafael," reads one sentence from the Statistician's report. The divorced grooms married in Orange county are 11.2 per cent of the total number, while in Los Angeles they are 7.1. The divorced brides are 14.5 per cent in Orange county, compared to 8.2 per cent in Los Angeles.

Santa Ana has nearly three times as many marriages as Los Angeles in proportion to the population. The explanation, says the statistician, is, runaway and romantic marriages.

The rate in Orange county is 34.2 for every 1000 population, compared to 12.9 in Los Angeles.

ENGLISH WOMAN FINDS WORTH IN TURKISH HAREMS

LONDON, Aug. 18.—That polygamy is really a commendable institution for Turkey, and that it might even be adopted with profit in England, was the rather startling declaration today of Miss Grace Ellison, well-known English writer, who has just returned from a protracted visit in and about Constantinople.

"It is far better," she declared, "to have four women supported and protected than to have one well-cared for and three sent out to struggle and starve under present conditions. I believe in one of two courses. Either put us in harems or give us freedom and equality with men. England condemns polygamy without stopping to consider its advantages to womanhood, while on the other hand she turns women adrift in the world and closes to them all the professions and trades she can. In other words, the Englishman won't support more than one female, and he won't help others to support themselves. Only today I met a woman of 55, the old maid daughter of a country parson, a semi-invalid, unfitted for work. She hadn't a single soul in the world who was disposed to support or even materially aid her. Such a thing could not happen in Turkey which we think so benighted. A man supports all female relatives, if necessary, as well as his wives.

"I visited a number of harems in Turkey, and I see no reason to pity the women there. They are intelligent and well educated and very fond of each other. No woman in Turkey is driven to the streets for lack of food and shelter. If she leads an irregular life she does it of her own free will. Society does not have her on its conscience. The Turk is kind and chivalrous to women. Moreover, he is consistent. He looks upon them as the weaker sex and he makes himself responsible for their welfare. He treats them as children, but he takes all responsibility from them and cares for them to the best of his ability. The Englishman also maintains that woman is inferior but he does not offer general protection to her weakness."

DEMOCRATIC INEFFICIENCY

President Wilson is receiving deserved credit generally throughout the country for the skill and determination with which he is forcing congress to action upon his legislative program, but he would deserve, and get, much more credit if he would extend his line of pressure upon his Democratic followers in the house and senate to the point of making them give somewhere near decent and adequate attention to the absolutely necessary business of the government.

In one extremely important respect the record of the Democrats, from the time they took charge of the house in the Sixty-second congress down to date, is one of inefficiency and incompetency. The long session of the Sixty-second congress met in December 1911. The fiscal year expired on June 30, 1912; but in those seven months the Democrats had displayed such inefficiency and incompetency that they had not passed the annual appropriation bills absolutely necessary for the maintenance of the government. Repeatedly charged with this gross inefficiency, the only explanation they have ever made is that they were busy making a political record on the tariff, and other things. In other words, their explanation is a confession of guilt of the precise charge.

The United States government is the greatest corporation in the world. Congress is its finance committee. There is not a corporation, partnership, firm or individual doing business in the world that could exist from one week's end to another with such inefficiency in its financial management.

In 1912 it was not until September that all the appropriation bills were passed. On two or three occasions it had been necessary to pass special resolutions continuing the old appropriations temporarily—a make-shift device of procrastination and inefficiency.

Now this special session of the Sixty-third congress, with the Democrats in control of the house, the senate and the administration, gives another exhibition of the absolute disregard of the Democrats for the financial obligation and honor of the government. The Democrats did not pass all their appropriation bills during the regular session, and two or three of them have had to be put through at this special session. Now it has been found that even in these belated bills sufficient provision was not made for some of the humblest of the government employees, who work at the lowest wages. There is no money now to pay the charwomen who scrub out the capital and the offices of members, and the page boys are still waiting for the wages they earned last June.

Yet these Democrats whose incompetency is thus proved by repeated evidence, are cheerfully setting themselves to the business of reforming the currency and banking systems of the United States, and are bragging that they know how to control corporations.

SMELLED A "HUSKY" FIRE

A forest ranger's diary contains a short and powerful sermon against carelessness with campfires. The following extract is from the diary of a forest ranger on the Tahoe National Forest:

"July 14, 1913. Riding along trail and smelled smoke; stopped to locate it. Camp fire. The people had built it in the thick ground cover. They put it out with water and left it. The fire smoldered along underneath and finally came to the surface three feet away. The wind caught it and it was just beginning to get husky when I found it."

This statement contains a world of warning. It shows that too much care cannot be taken with campfires. The action of the campers in this instance of pouring water on the fire is most commendable, but they made the mistake of building a fire without first clearing away the thick ground cover.

DRAMA ABROAD AND AT HOME

By Beau Rialto

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—Three Shakespearean revivals are promised by the Shuberts in the list of plays, just given out, that they will produce in New York during the 1913-14 season. Sir Johnston Forbes-Robertson, the eminent English actor recently knighted by King George, who will come to America this fall to make what he says is to be his farewell stage appearance anywhere, will open the new Shubert theater in the West Forty-fourth street in his Shakespearean repertoire. His company will be headed by his wife, Gertrude Elliott, and they will also revive "The Peace of the Third Floor Back," "The Light that Failed," and George Bernard Shaw's "Caesar and Cleopatra." They will have several weeks in New York and then tour to the coast, playing the principal cities.

At the same time it is planned to present E. H. Southern and Julia Marlowe at the Manhattan Opera House in Shakespearean plays, "Macbeth," "Romeo and Juliet," "As You Like It," "Much Ado About Nothing," "Twelfth Night," and other plays being in their repertoire for the season. Later William Faversham, under his own management, will present "Julius Caesar" in Shubert houses. He may also put on "Romeo and Juliet" and "Othello." Faversham is also expected to join in the production of "Panthia," a new play by Moncton Hoffe.

Several heretofore unknown authors appear in the Shuberts' announcement. "A Modern Girl" by Ruth C. Mitchell, "The Warning" by Arthur J. Eddy, and "If We Only Had Known," are among the American plays to be put on early in the season. "The Winning of Ma" is an American comedy, a dramatization of the "Pa Flickinger's Folks" stories by Bessie Hoover and another is "Miss Phoenix" by Albert Lee, dealing with modern New York life. William Hodge, who achieved such wide success in "The Man from Home" several seasons ago, will be starred on Broadway in "The Road to Happiness," in which he appeared on the road last season. A satirical comedy, "Children of Today," will be the vehicle of Louis Mann. It was written by Mrs. Mann (Clara Lipman) and Samuel Shipman.

Guy Standing and Crystal Herne will have the leading roles in a play by Ray Scarborough, "At Bay," and "Suttee" by Guy Bolton will also be put on for the first time. It is a problem play. The Shuberts also will bring Mme. Bertha Kalich back from vaudeville to the legitimate stage, starring her in a play, from the German, by E. E. Ritter, called "Her Son's Wife."

company will be presented in three foreign plays, one by Barker, one by G. B. Shaw and one by John Galsworthy. "Hop o' my Thumb," "Cheer Boys, Cheer," and "Dreadnaught" are three Drury Lane plays that will be given by the Shuberts in conjunction with William A. Brady, Arthur Collins and Comstock and Gest. A new version of "Turnabout," a Max Reinhardt play, will be put on, and in association with Winthrop Ames, "The Ride to Hell" will be produced.

"Believe Me, Xantippe" and "The Family Cupboard" will be put on by the Shuberts and Brady, and several of the plays that were successful last season, including "Fanny's First Play," "Romance," "The Five Frankfurters" and "Little Women" will be sent on tour. Sam Bernard is already rehearsing again in "All for the Ladies" and James T. Powers will revive "The Geisha."

The Aborns, heading the Century Opera Company, have announced an agreement whereby during the coming season they will exchange vocalists for brief engagements with the Chicago-Philadelphia Opera Company and the Boston Opera Company. Thus when the Century Company is putting on an opera in which some members of the other companies will sing to better advantage, the Aborns will just borrow the desired singers and ship them back at the end of the engagement. Century singers will be loaned in the same way.

Verdi's "Aida" will be the initial offering which will open the thirty-five weeks' season of the Century Opera Company on September 15. During the season, operas by Ponchielli, Offenbach, Wagner, Wolf-Farrari, Puccini, Saint-Saens, Charpentier, Gounod, Massenet, Balfe, Bizet, Humperdink, Thomas Flotow, Mascagni, Leoncavallo, Strauss and Meyerbeer will be sung.

Among the singers already engaged by the Aborns are Elizabeth Andsen, Florence Coughlan, Lois Ewell, Evelyn Scotney, Ivy Scott, Jayne Herbert, Kathleen Howard, Mary Jordan, John Barsley, Gustave Bergman, Morgan Kingston, Walter Wheatley, Morton Adkins Thomas Chalmers, Louis Kreidler, Hugh Schussler, Alfred Kaufman and Francesco Daddi; Carlo Nicossa and Alatar Szendrei, conductors; Luigi Albertini, stage director, and Louis Verande, stage manager.

What Other Papers Are Saying Editorially

Santa Ana Bulletin: With one four-story and one six-story office building to be started in the next few weeks, Santa Ana will keep up her reputation as a real live, wide awake city. Just watch this city reach the 20,000 mark by the next census. It is a sure thing.

Santa Ana Bulletin: We think that the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce is right in insisting that the name Polytechnic be added to the Santa Ana High School. The people voted $200,000 bonds for this purpose, and why conceal the fact that we will have a well-equipped polytechnic school? It is one of the best advertisements the city can have.

Natural Gas: If the owners of even one of the gas wells in this immediate vicinity could be induced to pipe the gas going to waste to Anaheim they would not only reap a rich reward, but it would be worth hundreds of thousands of dollars to the town's consumers of fuel in the course of a few years. In addition to this it would be a standing inducement to manufacturers to locate here. There is another way of getting this gas, and that is to get together enough money and sink a well right here in Anaheim to the gas bearing shale which we surely have under us. It is only a question of depth.

Mexican Situation: Persistent efforts on the part of American investors in Mexico, sensational newspapers and irresponsible and unthinking Americans to provoke armed intervention by the United States in Mexico have thus far availed nothing with the Wilson administration just as they availed nothing with the Taft administration but constant pressure on the part of capitalists and constant foolish acts and utterances on the part of the Mexican government and the Mexican rebels may yet bring about that undesirable, unnecessary and inhuman measure. Patriotism and protection for American citizens abroad is one thing—efforts to sacrifice thousands of lives to save a few reckless individuals and a few greedy investors is quite another.

Stanton Optimist: On account of the people who own homes and also because of property interests of both our own and others, in Stanton, the Optimist has been opposed to any sewer farm project being allowed to become established here. As the exclusion election carried almost unanimously it would seem that all danger of disincorporation is now past.

While we are satisfied with the result of the election and hope that the sewer proposition is now dead for all time, we would feel that we had been remiss in our duty if we did not warn the people that there are other nuisances and dangers threatening them and that only by eternal vigilance and hard work and determination on their part will they be enabled to abate and avoid these things.

The nuisances referred to are the conditions under which public utility companies are now, and have been for the past two years, operating in Stanton without franchises. And at least two of them, the Home telephone and the Edison lighting companies have been conducting their businesses here in direct violation to city ordinances and in a manner that is dangerous to both life and property. If there ever was any excuse why these companies should have been allowed to operate in contempt of the people's rights and in utter disregard of the city ordinances, that time has now passed and the board of city trustees should proceed at once to make these violators of law and justice take out franchises and conduct their businesses in a safe and lawful manner.

We would suggest to the board that when it takes up this most important matter that it ascertain what is the custom in other municipalities regarding the granting of such franchises and that it does not give away all of the people's rights in these as it seems it did in granting a franchise to the railway company.

On account of the danger of the sewer farm, this paper has refrained from taking up some most important matters that are of vital importance to the future welfare of this community, but now that the sewer danger seems to be a thing of the past it will take up a campaign against these existing evils.

In granting franchises to public utility corporations many Southern California municipalities have been given a certain percentage of the corporation's gross earnings and in all cases the utility companies have been made to install their business in a reasonably safe manner. Do not allow yourselves to be hoodwinked, good people, but guard well your rights in the granting of these valuable franchises.

Curtailing Fly Pest

Journal of Agriculture: The house fly is a pest not only in this country but in all countries from the cold northern regions to the warm tropical climates. It is most abundant in those countries and regions where the least attention is paid to sanitation. In some parts of Paris it is almost completely stamped out, due to the laws of regulations forbidding the keeping of horses and requiring a proper disposition of all materials which the fly might breed in or feed upon.

These same conditions can be had in any city or in any community in this country if we only take the same steps in properly disposing of barnyard manure, decaying vegetables, and garbage barrels and such materials and places where the fly breeds. These conditions probably cannot be expected for many years throughout this country generally, but as our country becomes more and more thickly populated we will be obliged to pass more stringent rulings along these lines in order to protect human life from this pest.

Not Easily Perturbed

"The American girl," said Mayor Ainslie, at a bachelor dinner in Richmond, "is noted for her beauty and intelligence, and she is also noted for her adroitness. Circumstances can never confound her."

"A typical American girl, young and beautiful, sat with her clear eyes fixed ardently on the orbs of a young man, who, seated at her side, poured forth his soul in a declaration of love. 'Suddenly the girl's brow darkened. A look of pain overspread her face. With a queenly gesture she silenced the love-stricken youth. 'Wait, wait,' she cried. 'The next moment the sneeze came, and at once the ardent and tender glow stole back into her eyes, and, laying her hand on the young man's sleeve, she murmured: 'As you were saying, Alfred?'"

Have Scissors Handy

The habit of reading with a pair of scissors close at hand is an invaluable one to the busy housewife. So often there are recipes, household hints and other odd bits of information that would prove useful, but we have lost account of when or where they are. In every kitchen there should be a scrap book for such items as these, and the more methodically they are arranged the more useful they will be.

Tiny German States While it is well known that some of the German states are of Hittite size, few persons are aware that it is quite possible to visit seven of them, including two kingdoms, two duchies and three principalities, in an easy walk of four and a half hours.

A good walker, starting from Steinbach, in Bavaria, will arrive in half an hour at Lichtentanne, which is situated in Saxe-Meiningen. Thence the road proceeds in one and one-half hours to Rauschengesee (Reuss, Elder Branch), after which in a few minutes Geleina, in Schwarzburg-Rudolstadt, is reached.

Half an hour's walk brings the pedestrian to Altenegese (Reuss, Younger Branch). An hour farther on lies Dronitz, on Prussian soil, and the last stage is another hour's stroll, finishing up at Salthal, Saxe-Altenburg. Exchange.

Massenet's Work

As the days pass by the work of "Grandpa Massenet," the French composer, who died recently, is growing in public favor, and the Parisian newspapers are supplying no small additions to the fund of anecdote concerning him. His last work, "Panurge," a subject taken as the name indicates, from the old and not over-delicate humorist, Rabelais, was a great delight to him. Apropos of "Panurge," he said: "The brain is always under the influence of the body. In order to get the true Rabelaisian tone, it was necessary to put myself on a regime of sausages, bacon and cabbage, irrigated with copious tumblers of drink. But I was always in danger of upsetting my stomach."

Hon. J. W. Towner, Former Superior Judge, Celebrating His Ninetieth Birthday

Today is the ninetieth birthday of one of Orange County's most prominent citizens. It is the birthday of James William Towner, the county's first superior judge, which position he held from 1889 to 1897. Three generations of the Towner family are today adding the worthy judge to celebrate his arrival at the four score and tenth milestone of a career that has been unusually useful and active.

This morning there was a gathering of friends and relatives of Judge Towner at the family residence, 520 West Fourth street, and at 1 o'clock the aged jurist was host at a dinner served at Taylor's.

The occasion was a glad one. Judge Towner is beloved by all who know him, especially by those near and dear to him.

Judge Towner was born in Williamsburg, N. Y., on Aug. 18, 1823. From early childhood up to this very day Judge Towner has been an inveterate student. Not only was he unusually well informed along legal lines, but he has become proficient in speaking and writing a number of languages. He reads the Old Testament in Greek.

He was admitted to the bar in Iowa in 1859. As captain of Company F, Ninth Iowa Volunteer Infantry, he was in active service in the Civil War until the battle of Pea Ridge, where he was wounded, losing the sight of one eye. He returned to the field but was disabled for field service and was discharged in Feb., 1867. In Oct., 1867, he was commissioned captain in the Invalid Corps by President Lincoln, in which he served until 1866.

After the war, he practiced law in Ohio, New York and Connecticut. He moved to Santa Ana in Sept., 1882, and followed the practice of law until he was chosen superior judge when the County of Orange was organized.

Judge Towner has two great grandchildren, and they live in New York. The guests of Judge and Mrs. Towner today are:

Mrs. A. E. Towner and Miss H. H. Towner, Laguna Beach; H. F. Towner, Santa Ana; Mrs. C. B. Towner, Los Angeles; Miss N. Elma and Bob Towner, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Mac O. Robbins, Miss Doris Robbins, Santa Ana; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lesley, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lesley and son, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Jno. T. Lesley and two sons, De Luz, California; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Farmer and two children, boy and girl, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Scudder and two boys and one girl, Santa Ana.

Eastern Wedding of Interest Here

Cards have been received in this city announcing the marriage, at Courtland Lawn, the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Chandler, near Columbia, Mo., of their daughter, Letha, to Mr. Andrew Orear.

The bride is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Baumgartner of this city, and visited here, with her mother and sister, some two-and-a-half years ago.

Like his bride, Mr. Orear is a native of Columbia, Mo., and the union is the culmination of a love affair that dates back almost to the childhood days of the young people, who were long-time schoolmates in the public schools of Columbia and at the University of Missouri.

The bride is a young woman of exceptional intellectual and cultural attainments and rare social graces and domestic virtues. The groom is a rapidly-rising young business man, of fine character, successfully combining electrical engineering with the commercial phases of that profession. They will make their home for the present at Mason City, Iowa, which is centrally located in the territory in which Mr. Orear is operating.

Great Iowa Picnic

Lovers of Santa Ana and Southern California are looking forward to the big summer Iowa picnic to be held at Long Beach next Saturday with keen expectancy. These annual gatherings, during which old and new friends and neighbors who are now residents of Southern California, also those who are merely here on a visit or who are seeking a home in the fair land of the south.

The outing will be held at Bixby Park and an unusually interesting

HOBLE SKIRT AND FRENCH HEELS FIGURE IN ACCIDENT REPORTS

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has taken official cognizance of hobble skirts and French heels. It has instructed its trainmen to especially note the dress of women in all accidents in which the tight skirt and high heels are factors. This order, which has been posted on every trainmen's bulletin along the Pennsylvania route, followed a public statement that many accidents to women on car steps are the direct result of the fashionable handicaps to freedom of movement known as the hobble skirt and French heels.

The order is to the effect that trainmen at all times, as in the past, shall lend passengers all assistance, and that whenever a woman falls in connection with boarding or leaving a train, the man who sees it shall note the width of skirt and height of heels. The trainmen are not to be equipped with measuring tapes or rules, but they are to make a calculation and report their observations.

A program has been prepared by the officers of the society. The Iowa registration plan which has been used so successfully at former picnics of the Iowans will be followed during the coming event, thus enabling friends to find each other easily.

A handsome souvenir badge is to be given to the person present who can show the longest continuous residence in Iowa. It is expected this feature of the program will bring out a keen competition. The program opens at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Watermelon Party

The J. A. Turner cottage at Newport Beach was the scene of a merry gathering last Friday, a watermelon feast being the attraction. Those who came, saw and conquered the luscious red-hearted melons temptingly served by the hostess were Rev. and Mrs. S. Clark, Rev. and Mrs. Wade Hamilton and son Howard, Mesdames A. C. Williams, F. O. Daniel, G. G. Williamson, G. D. Williamson, and daughter Florence, Mrs. James Paul of Eagle Rock, Mrs. Belle Smith of Newport Beach, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Inch and son Thomas Turner, and Mr. A. C. Turner.

"Bean Day" Tomorrow

Tomorrow will be "Bean Day" at Huntington Beach G.A.R. veterans' encampment and the women of the camp will be in charge. They will not only provide the great dishes of army stew and beans but will have entire charge of the camp. They will perform all the duties of the day, and will close the day by an entertainment in the evening, given under the directions of the Daughters of Veterans.

The women of Santa Ana have always been prominent on "Bean Day," and it is likely that they will be among the prime movers among those who are at the front in tomorrow's doings.

Endeavorers at Tustin

About thirty or forty members of the C. E. Society of the First Presbyterian church of this city motored to Tustin last evening and held a successful open air meeting, foregoing the usual Sunday evening meeting at the local church.

For House Guests

Misses Carrie and Nancy Elder entertained a number of young ladies at their home on Saturday afternoon in honor of friends from the East who are their house guests. Needlework and refreshments helped to make the event a pleasant one.

ORATORICAL SUCCESS

Miss Louise Bangs of This City Gave Appreciated Reading in Los Angeles

Miss Louise Bangs, the talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Bangs, of 701 Orange avenue, gave a Van Dyke reading at the Salem Congregational Church, Los Angeles, last night, her selection being "The Last Word."

Miss Bangs' rendition was heard by a large and appreciative audience. The young lady, who has been engaged to teach English in the Visalia High School the coming year, has been doing special work in the U. S. C. summer school this summer, besides taking private instruction in oral expression, so she will be well equipped for all lines of her specialty in the Visalia school. She leaves for the north about the middle of September.

The reading given last night in Los Angeles by Miss Bangs was the result of a complimentary recommendation from a leading instructor in oratorical and fully met all expectations.

Jollification at Newport Beach

The young people of the Christian Endeavor Society of the First Christian Church will go to Newport Beach this evening to indulge in a chicken supper which is to be disguised under some "sugar" title but which nevertheless will be as toothsome a delicacy as though pronounced in the purest of English.

The party will make the journey via automobile truck and all fortunate enough to be on the list of the C. E.'s are anticipating the best time of the season.

Having Fine Sport

Newport News: Fishing parties are having fine sport with albicore, but barracuda are still scarce. Yellowfin and surf are fairly numerous along the beach in the evenings and some five pounders have been caught within the past few days. On the wharf a run of small mackerel has remained the mackerel fishermen of days gone by when these choice fish were caught by the hundreds every day. Halibut seem to be more numerous around the S. P. wharf than they have been for years and an occasional run of oil sharks makes business good for the tackle dealers.

Settle Tax Rate

Huntington Beach News: The tax rate for the current year was fixed at one per cent which added to the library tax of 15-100 and the special advertising tax of 15-100 recently voted and slightly more than 62-100 to care for the interest on the pier bonds will make the total tax rate for this city practically 1.93, allowing a small per centage for delinquent taxes.

Flocks of Ducks

Newport News: Numerous flocks of ducks have been going south this week the sight being gladdening to the eyes of the local sportsmen. The ducks that have made their appearance so far are all young sprigs of this year's hatch and have not yet got their permanent plumage. That the ducks are inexperienced is shown by their fearlessness as several flocks have been seen flying over the city within easy shot-gun range and one would be almost justified in shooting at them in self-defense. The duck season does not open until October 1st.

Laprobe Is Stolen

SUNDAY SERVICES AT CAMP MEETING

The 8 o'clock prayer meeting at the Evangelical Campmeeting was well attended and was a spiritual refreshing to all that took part and an inspiration for the duties of the day.

The Sunday school was opened by the well known superintendent of the Evangelical Sunday School of this city, Mr. O. H. Gruenewald. The attendance was large and instead of the regular lesson the school was addressed by three speakers.

Rev. S. F. Hilgenfeld from Los Angeles addressed the school on the topic, "Crossing the Red Sea." Rev. Philip Sachs from San Diego spoke on "A Nation of Slaves Set Free." Rev. A. H. Zahl from Anaheim pointed out that God was the mighty leader and guide of Israel and how He leads His people today.

The morning sermon was preached to a large audience by Rev. F. W. Voegelien, P. E., from Los Angeles, on the topic, "Reconciliation." Col. 1:20-23, followed by the celebration of Holy Communion attended by many.

In the afternoon the tabernacle was crowded. Every seat was occupied and all chairs and benches from tents and dining room were used to seat the people. The sermon was preached by Rev. S. F. Hilgenfeld from Los Angeles on Deut. 4:1. The principal points of this timely and heart-searching sermon were, "Harken—Do—Live—Go in."

The evening services were opened by a song and praise service followed by a sermon by Rev. W. J. Seimally of Los Angeles. He spoke earnest words of exhortation on the text, "Be not deceived. God is not mocked." Gal. 6:7. This was followed by an altar and consecration service.

COUNTY ASSESSOR SLEEPER KILLED A FINE BUCK FRIDAY

County Assessor James Sleeper is one of the few—exceedingly few—hunters who have brought down a buck in this county since the season opened last Friday. Sleeper left his ranch with his partner, J. Walker, Friday morning, and along toward evening they ran on to a sleek two-year-old buck, which Sleeper killed.

A party of six from Santa Ana went into Los Angeles county from here, and one of them, A. Jeffrey, got a buck.

YESTERDAY NOTABLE DAY AT ENCAMPMENT

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Aug. 18.—Yesterday at the annual encampment of the Southern California Veterans' Association at Huntington Beach, the D. A. R. lined up for dress parade. About 500 veterans, the remnants of a fast-disappearing army, "counted fours" and marched in review behind the G. A. R. drum corps of Los Angeles, past the reviewing officer, Commander R. Heffelfinger, and his aides and the department commander and past commander and other officers present at the encampment.

Many of the old war heroes in line were with empty sleeves or crippled limbs, all with heads whitened and furrowed faces, the majority of them showing the ravages of disease, or the effects of wounds. With the Stars and Stripes borne by an armed color-bearer, with the sounds of bugle and drum again in their ears, the veterans marched with as firm steps as their age and physical condition permitted, cheered on all sides by hundreds of those who enjoy today the fruits of the marchers' victories in hard-fought battles.

Five hundred veterans of the Civil War and an equal number of women of the Relief Corps and an audience of 3000 persons were in the great auditorium at the beach during the annual memorial services of the association, held in the morning.

Vacant chairs draped in the colors of the organizations were placed on the stage in memory of the dead of the G. A. R., the W. R. C., the United Spanish War Veterans, the Sons of Veterans, the Ladies' Auxiliary Societies, and the Army Nurses. The adjutant read the names of the year's dead in the posts belonging to the S. C. V. A., and they totalled 171, distributed as follows: Pasadena, in which city John Godfrey Post showed the largest number of dead, among the posts of Southern California, 21; Los Angeles, 41; Long Beach, 14; Pomona, 15; Ventura, 4; Huntington Beach, 2; San Diego, 24; Riverside, 11; Sawtelle, 5; Carleton, 1; Orange, 3; Whittier, 2; Montevia, 3; Tropic, 4; Norwalk, 1; Santa Ana, 6; San Bernardino, 5; Ontario, 4; Fullerton, 2; Roosevelt Camp, U. S. W. V., 8. The dead of the auxiliary societies numbered 75.

After the reading of the names of the dead of each post, Bagler Ned Holderman of Tustin sounded taps and Drummer Philo Case sounded the death roll on the historic drum which he carried throughout the Civil War in a voice broken with sobs. W. A. Packard of Los Angeles, chief of staff, sang "The Vacant Chair." Chaplain Norton delivered the sermon after the entire audience had stood and repeated the twenty-third psalm and the fourteenth chapter of St. John. The chaplain took "Freedom" as his text and spoke earnestly of the real freedom which only a godly life can give. In the evening, Commander Heffelfinger delivered an eulogy on the life of Past Commander John A. Davis, who died at Whittier this year and whose adjutant Heffelfinger was during Davis' incumbency.

Marching four abreast and attired in their attractive uniforms, 100 members of Robley D. Evans Post and Corps of Los Angeles visited the encampment of the Southern California Veterans' Association here Friday evening and presented an excellent entertainment at the Auditorium before an enormous audience. Philo Case, the famous drummer boy of Shiloh, gave a wonderful exhibition of battle music on the same drum used in the battle in which he became famous.

Saturday night's entertainment was by Roosevelt Camp, United Spanish War Veterans of Los Angeles, under command of John Curtin. It was enthusiastically received by a great audience. In the morning the Penny Club of the Ladies' Relief Corps of Southern California opened its savings banks and found a large sum of money, which will be used in providing a bean dinner for the veterans next Tuesday. In the afternoon—Children's Day—flag drills, patriotic recitations and songs by a large number of little tots pleased the old soldiers who fought for the flag for which the children are being taught reverence.

A resolution was unanimously adopted by the veterans protesting against misrepresentation of battles of the Civil War in moving picture theaters all over the country. A resolution was also adopted asking United States Senator 4; Fullerton, 2; Roosevelt Camp, U. S. W. V., 8. The dead of the auxiliary societies numbered 75.

After the reading of the names of translated from the earth into heaven. Enoch was not a popular preacher. From a reference in Jude we conclude they spoke harshly about him. They were sinners he declared, and that God would come and judge them. Among themselves they said, "Why, that old fellow, he's a real preacher, and judgment and hell." To Enoch they said, "You are away behind the times. You are not abreast with modern thought." But while the people made it plain that they were not pleased with Enoch, before his translation he had this testimony: "He pleased God."

Somehow God's prophets never do please sinners. Stephen said to the Jews: "Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? They killed them who showed the coming of Jesus, and you murdered him when he did come."

The antediluvians cursed Enoch, but God translated him. The Jews stoned Stephen, but the heavens opened and received his spirit into glory. The connection of the text indicates that Enoch's life was a life of holiness. His faith was a sure foundation for his hope, and made divine realities, although unseen, to be actual things. Enoch had the favor of God because his faith gave him the realization of the divine presence.

God desires that men shall recognize Him. In the natural and supernatural He seeks the manifestation of himself unto men so that they shall have the consciousness of the divine nearness. A faith that takes such promises as "Lo I am with you always," and daily realizes that God makes them good, gives pleasure to the deity.

Enoch stood well with God because his faith gave him a consciousness of the reality and awesomeness of sin. He saw it as the thing which God hated, the thing that was an abomination unto Him; that which separated men from Him. "If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us."

This man had the divine good will because of his confidence in God's way of salvation from sin. There was deliverance neither in morality, philosophy, law, culture, nor sanitation, but only in Christ crucified. "We have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins." "The blood of Jesus Christ, his son, cleanseth us from all sin." As God was well pleased with Jesus Christ as the only Savior, He has pleasure in those who trust Him.

The Patriarch's faith in God's word gave him standing with the Most High.

Concerning the scriptures there is this claim: "All scripture is given by inspiration of God," and "Holy men spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost." The faith that gives attention unto God's teachings and obedience unto His commands, and confidence in His record of things is pleasing unto Him.

The sinner that trusts Jesus as his Savior pleases God, for "there is joy in heaven over one sinner that repents."

The saved one who walks with God and delights to do his will may expect to have in his life the assurance that Enoch had, "he pleased God."

The services at the College of Music were opened by the congregational hymn, "Sun of My Soul." The lesson was read by Mr. Wright, and the evening prayer was offered by Mr. Martin. Miss Lillian Henschen of Chicago then sang in a very sweet and well modulated voice, "O, Loving Father."

The message of the evening was brought by Paul Wright. His subject was "The Greatest Loss." The outline of his thought follows:

Paul, in the 13th chapter of 1st Corinthians, closes his essay on Love by saying: "Now abideth faith, hope, and love; but the greatest of these is love." Jesus in his message to the church at Ephesus, through the Apostle John, says to them: "Nevertheless, I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast lost thy first love." Now I have simply put these two together and got this subject, "The Greatest Loss." It is easy to see that if love is the greatest thing in the world, its loss would be a great calamity to the bereaved soul.

One may lose his faith and become a skeptic; he may lose his hope and become a pessimist; if he loses his love he becomes a cynic. One may lose his first faith and not be hurt much. Our first faith is usually the faith of another; our parents, our teachers or friends are responsible for our first faith. So our first faith must necessarily undergo many changes, until it, at last, becomes our very own, founded on our own judgment and reason. It is sometimes thought that faith is blind; but it has the longest vision of anything in the world. It is not a haphazard sort of thing, either; it is founded on evidence, hence it is a thing of reason; it is the conclusion of reasoning. God invites the one and expects the other to follow. If faith has changed, it is not a cause for worry; it is its entire loss that should cause us to mourn. The change may be, and it normal is, the very thing we should expect in the evolution of our character. One may lose his first hope and be not altogether hopeless. Who has forgotten his wild, childish airships that thronged his mind day and night when he was a child, a youth, a young man and followed him even until the shadows began to lengthen towards the east. They were not in vain; they were necessary. They were composed of that light, feathery substance of which dreams are made. Now if they were to be realized, what a flimsy sort of world it would be. There would be Cinderellas on every side and Prince Charmings galore. These are all fine characters for the time of childhood, but not very valuable folks for big battleships and skyscrapers. Yes, we have lost our first hopes and many other hopes since, but we are still able to smile and be happy, and see the bright side of things. We do not chase the rainbow pot of gold, but we want the gold tried in the fire of God's furnace. It is pitiable to see one who cannot stand the disappointment of the blinding of his first hopes. Some way or another I always feel in the presence of the pessimist that I have found another case of arrested development. A sort of childishness that infects everyone with whom it meets with the story of its woes and failures. We are saved by hope. The constant illusion of life keeps us on our feet and fights back despair. Let us notice the difference of the quality of hope. Some men are looking for a land flowing with milk and honey, but there are those who look for a city whose builder and maker is God. It is well for things to be hung before our eyes to lead us on and on until the day dawns and the day star arises in our hearts.

But a man cannot lose his first love and be quite the same man he was when he accepted the Lord Jesus. Love keeps us young and happy. As long as the husband and wife love each other they never grow old. No more beautiful picture of perpetual youth can be found than the old age of lovers whose affection has never waned, but rather ripened with the years and toils of a long life.

Love is democratic; it asks no questions of class, caste or previous condition of servitude. It envelops its object in the halo of its own glory and transforms it into its own beautiful likeness. Love contributes more to human happiness than all the rest of the world; in fact, without it there is no happiness. It is easily to be seen that its loss is irreparable. How it helps, strengthens, yet even glorifies its object, perhaps an unworthy one, too. It is the love of God that leads us to repentance.

The great city of Sodom has been lost in the shuffle of human events, while lesser cities that were its contemporaries still survive with their meager Christian population. The life that has lost its first love is easily and necessarily swallowed up in the swirl of worldliness never to be heard of again.

The sermon was followed by Mrs. Shepherd's solo, "My Lord and I." It was very effectively done. The soloists for the evening, Miss Henschen and Mrs. Shepherd, certainly delighted the audience with their beautiful singing. Miss Henschen possesses a rare contralto voice, smooth as a pebble and vibrant with her deep religious feeling. Mrs. Shepherd has a fine soprano that is heard in all parts of the room; you catch every word, and the song and singer grow on you long after the service is over. The music of the evening will long be remembered as contributing very much to the sweetness of the service.

ADVISES AGAINST BICHLORIDE ROUTE

M. D. Sounds Warning Against Mistaken Idea that It is Painless

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 18.—"I should advise anyone seeking a flower strewn path to the Great Beyond to leave bichloride of mercury alone. I can conceive of no more horrible death than from the effects of bichloride," Dr. L. M. Van Meter, prominent Denver physician, today issued this warning to "would-be suicides," through the United Press. In doing so he admitted that the increase in the number of persons taking this means of ending their lives, is giving medical men all over the country much concern. The use of bichloride, said Dr. Van Meter, has alarmingly increased, following the death of G. Sanders, Walker, millionaire banker of Macon, Ga., who took the poison by mistake and lived for several days afterwards with full knowledge of his approaching end.

"It is an erroneous opinion that death by bichloride is painless," said Dr. Van Meter today. "Violent pains follow the spreading of the poison through the system. It is a corrosive poisoning and naturally it is hotly irritating. There is no known antidote after the poison has had a fair start, except albumen—usually the white of an egg—which surrounds and holds inactive the poison if it is given soon enough and if the quantity of the poison taken is not too large."

"The reason there is no means of coping with this terrible poison after it has left the stomach is that the mercury dissolves and permeates the system so rapidly. In action it is very much like arsenic but far more painful. The effect of mercuric bichloride is much similar in some respects to the effects of an overdose of calomel. In some cases the teeth are loosened, the sufferer undergoes violent paroxysms of pain, vomiting spells and convulsions.

"How the idea got abroad that bichloride of mercury was painless is hard to say. If one or two men have stoically borne the anguish that does not mean that others can do likewise. A person who can stand the terrible pains of bichloride of mercury poisoning stoically cannot have human feelings."

TAMMANY WILL PUT
DOWLING UP FOR NEW YORK'S MAYOR

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Justice Victor J. Dowling of the supreme court will be named for mayor by the Democratic city committee in Tammany hall on next Saturday. That was the statement last night of a man close to Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany hall. It left no doubt that Justice Dowling is the choice of the "boss" and that his name will be passed on unanimously at the committee meeting.

From rumors in political circles last week there was no doubt that the qualities of Justice Dowling as a mayoralty candidate were being considered carefully by the boss of Tammany hall and his associates. Friends of the justice have been urging his name to Mr. Murphy, but they got no word from the Tammany leader as to his sentiments until within the last few days.

OUR WEEKLY SERMON

As Preached at the Union Service at the First Congregational Church Yesterday by Rev. W. L. C. Sanson, Pastor of the United Presbyterian Church.

Heb. 11:5. "Enoch Pleased God."

In Genesis we read concerning Enoch—he was the father of Methuselah, the oldest man—that he lived three hundred and sixty-five years, "he walked with God and was not for God took him." The text connection tells that "he was translated."

Of the nature of translation we may not fully understand. We read in First Corinthians: "We shall not all die, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye. This corruptible shall put on incorruption and this mortal shall put on immortality."

Someone has imagined God coming unto Enoch in the evening of a day when he was weary and sore-hearted in the struggle against the evil in the antediluvian world. He unbursed his soul unto God. He knew the struggle Enoch had made. He understood the hardness of the people. He said: "Enoch, you have been faithful, come home with me tonight." Enoch replied: "All right, Lord." And "in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, the corruptible became incorruptible." "The body of his humiliation was fashioned like unto the glorified body." He was not, for God had

BOY MET DEATH IN RESERVOIR YESTERDAY

Ventura Lad Was Drowned
While Swimming on Ranch
of H. L. Williams

COMPANION TRIED TO GIVE HIM AID

Boy and His Mother Visited at the Home of John Akers
Near Fullerton

Yesterday afternoon about sundown George Willard, aged 10, of Ventura, was drowned in a reservoir on the ranch of H. L. Williams, four miles north of Fullerton. The boy and his mother arrived from Ventura about five days ago and had been visiting at the ranch of John Akers.

Late in the afternoon a number of boys in the neighborhood went to the reservoir to go in swimming. At the point where the boy was drowned the water was about six feet deep. The boy cried for help, and two of his companions tried to help him. One of the boys got hold of the sinking lad, but was himself pulled down and had a struggle to save himself.

The reservoir is a small one, used to store water for irrigation of Williams' ranch, and there was no great difficulty in recovering the body of the boy. All efforts to revive him failed.

Coroner Winbiger held an inquest this morning. The boy's father, George L. Willard, of Santa Ana, Ventura county, was present. The testimony of the three boys who were with the boy was that they were in the water first. George told them he guessed he could swim as well as they. He jumped in while the others were on the bank and almost immediately he called for help.

HE COULD NOT SEE JOKE IN SNIPE HUNT

Newport News: Arthur Diehls, a Chicago railroad conductor who with his wife have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Stones in this city was given the novelty of a snipe hunt Sunday evening. He was stationed on the beach near 15th street with a sack and lantern and told to hold the bag open while the snipes were driven in. The rest of the party which consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Stones, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Lane, Joe Schnitzer, Adlai Gordon, Heath Schnitzer and Wade McConnell got on the upper porch of the brick building on 15th street and watched the Chicagoan hold the sack until they had enough enjoyment over it when they gently broke the news that the snipe trick was so old that it had whiskers on it and could only be worked on tenderfeet. Diehls was so mad that he refused to buy the ice cream or anything else.

ANNA GOULD MAKES FIGHT TO RETAIN CUSTODY OF SONS

ROME, Aug. 18.—The Duchess de Telyrand, who was Anna Gould of New York, in a letter written to the Giornale d'Italia concerning the decision given recently by the Rota tribunal annulling her marriage to Count Boni de Castellane, her first husband, says the decision was handed down without her knowledge or her having a chance to defend herself.

The Duchess says her object in appealing from the decision and fighting the decree of annulment is not for the purpose of preventing Count Boni marrying again, but to keep him from reclaiming their two sons.

COUNTRESS HANGED ON TRAIN
ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 18.—The Countess Tarnowsky, who in 1910 was convicted in Venice of complicity in the murder of Count Kamorowsky and sentenced to eight years' imprisonment, was found dead on a St. Petersburg-Kiev express train yesterday. She had been hanged. The police are investigating to determine whether it is a case of suicide or murder. The countess was pardoned last year.

GERMANY SILENT OFFICIALLY AS TO PANAMA FAIR PLAN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Secretary of State Bryan said last night that he had not received any official notification of the determination of Germany not to participate in the San Francisco exposition in 1915. He added that he had no plan at present to procure a reversal, if this reported determination proves to be true.

Mr. Bryan added, however, that if any plan offered itself which held out promise of securing the participation of Germany he would be glad to adopt it.

IS TO HAVE STREET FAIR

Two Miles of Orangethorpe
Road Excavated and Ready for Concrete

ANAHEIM, Aug. 17.—A carnival and street fair will be held here the first week in September. The entertainment features will be given by a carnival company, under the auspices of the local lodge of Moose.

Negotiations for the street fair have been under way for the past two weeks. The carnival will open on Labor Day with a parade in the morning, in which the Los Angeles Moose lodge will participate.

An entire vacant block near the Central school building will be enclosed with canvas and in this enclosure the attractions will be grouped.

More than two miles of the road bed of Orangethorpe avenue has been excavated and is now ready for the application of the asphalt surface. Orangethorpe avenue will be the first section of the county good road system to be completed.

The heirs of the Hettebrink estate are considering an offer made them of $3000 per acre for the 100-acre ranch at Placentia. This offer has been made by a capitalist who desires to make a fine country home of the large ranch.

WHITTIER TO SHIP 100 CARS WALNUTS AT HIGH PRICES

WHITTIER, Aug. 18.—Judging from present indications the walnut crop in this vicinity will be normal. According to Wallace Gregg, Supt. of the Whittier Walnut Growers' Association, the yield this year will be 100 carloads. This is just one carload less than was shipped last year. The cash returns, however, will be much greater this year on account of the higher price which will be received. The association expects to get 14 cents a pound this season against 12 1/2 cents last year.

TERRIFIC DAKOTA HAILSTORM

MINOT, N. D., Aug. 18.—From $50,000 to $75,000 damage to the crops of Ravenna county resulted from a terrific hailstorm yesterday. The damage extends from Tolley across the international boundary. The path of the storm was five miles wide and more than thirty miles long.

RARE WHITE ROBIN

EL PASO, Ill., Aug. 18.—John Stephen, son, a farmer, yesterday found a white robin on the A. B. Hurd farm, near El Paso. The bird is snowy white, with pink eyes. Although not unknown to science, it is a great rarity. Mr. Hurd expects to place the bird in one of the Chicago parks.

Pickets Saved Child's Life

Falling three stories to be unhurt, a two-year-old child named Phillips had a notable escape from death at Weehawken, N. J., the other day. The child had been left alone for a few moments in a room of his parents' house, when he climbed on a chair in front of an open window and gazed out. Later his mother heard a scream and rushed into the room to find the child gone. He had crawled out of the window and had fallen three stories. The frightened mother rushed down the stairs and found the baby unhurt. He had just grazed a picket fence and the pickets had caught his clothing, held him for a moment, and then dropped him gently to the pavement.

Reason Enough
"Mr. Jinks has canceled all social engagements. Has there been a death in the family?"
"No, they are hunting for a house."

LET CONTRACTS IN A SHORT TIME

Pixley Thinks Little Chance to Get La Habra
Change

Orange News: The State Highway Commission will shortly let a contract for state road in this county, in the opinion of D. C. Pixley, county highway commissioner. Full data for the work in the northern part of the county has been forwarded by the state engineers to Sacramento and Mr. Pixley believes that contracts will be let shortly.

That there will be no change in the route through the La Habra Valley seems to be a foregone conclusion, as Commissioner Darlington has told the La Habra people that it is useless to attempt to have the south road considered, as the highway will undoubtedly be routed along the north road, where there is one turn as against three on the south road.

Mr. Pixley states that the machinery is being placed in the county's rock and gravel plant, and that it should be ready to operate in about ten days.

Bids on the fourth contract on the county highway system will be opened next Tuesday. This will be on the Orange-Olive road.

Work on two contracts has actually commenced. The West Fifth street contract is under way, the contractor being engaged in filling in the approaches to the new bridge. On Orangethorpe avenue excavation is under way. Work will begin within a few days on the Orange-Tustin road.

COLD WAVE OVER U. S. FORECAST FOR WEEK

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—The distribution of atmospheric pressure over the North American continent and the adjacent oceans is such as to indicate temperatures far below the average for the season during the coming week.

A general moderation of the heat wave over the central valleys and the middle plains states is probable. Over the great central valleys, the plains states and the Rocky mountain region there will be frequent showers and thunder storms during the next several days.

C. G. Twist of Santa Ana has reached the heights of his ambition as a fisherman. Last week he captured a monster yellowtail, weighing forty-nine pounds and twelve ounces. By so doing he won a gold button offered by the Tuna Club. He then stated that if he could land swordfish, he would feel that he had done about everything that could be expected of an angler in Catalina Waters.

Today a card was received from him at his home here, stating that he had just returned from a trip in which he landed two swordfish, one weighing 137 pounds and the other weighing 100 pounds.

The Army of the Philippines is composed of men who saw service in that country and the Veterans of the Foreign Service is composed of soldiers who saw service in any foreign country, principally Cuba and Porto Rico. The reunions will close Wednesday with the election of officers.

AUTOS LOADED WITH PEACE DISTURBERS

Officers Gathered Together
Two Crowds of Mexicans
Out on Rampages

Yesterday an attempt was made by officers to move a goodly portion of Delhi and Dyer into Santa Ana, and they succeeded in bringing in eleven residents of those two places. Ten out of the eleven were put in jail, and the other in the Detention Home.

Under Sheriff Law and Deputy Boynton went forth to Dyer in response to a call stating that there was a free-for-all in progress there. The free-for-all turned out to be an attack by E. Jiminez, Antonio Chavez, L. Ledesma, C. and Mr. Garcia upon Secundino Arrellano. Arrellano was beaten up considerably.

After the officers had rounded up the five disturbers they heard that there was another affair in progress at Delhi at a house presided over by Ignacio Sotelo, with whom the officers have an acquaintance left over from previous occasions. Sotelo is accused of having beaten Carmen Morino, who lived at his house, and Garbela, a step-daughter. Robert Martinez and Juan Anaya were mixed up in the affair, and were charged with disturbing the peace. Sotelo was charged with battery.

While the officers were at the place, Ysidro Oseguerra came along. Law noticed a bulge on the man's hip, and on searching him found a revolver. This man was added to the assemblage at the county jail.

After a Thief

Yesterday afternoon a stranger stopped among the Mexicans at Anaheim. At the home of Martin Guerra he tried to sell a pair of pants. Unable to do so he asked for something to eat. Mrs. Guerra stepped from the room, and the man stole $55 from her hand-bag. Guerra caught the man, but did not search him. While waiting for officers to arrive, the stranger gave the slip and got away. Sheriff Ruddle and Under Sheriff Law searched Anaheim for the man, but could not locate him.

This morning Justice Shirley sentenced Sotelo, charged with battery, to a fine of $120 or 120 days in jail; Oseguerra, charged with carrying a concealed weapon, to $100 or 100 days in jail; and the seven other men arrested to $60 each or sixty days in jail each.

TWO MORE LIENS ARE ADDED TO THOSE PUT ON THE AUDITORIUM

Mechanics' liens against the Auditorium Theater building are piling up. Saturday two more liens were put on record. One of them was by the California Steel Ceiling Company on a demand for $462, and the other was by F. H. McElree on a demand for $530.13.

Estate Appraised
J. N. Anderson, J. A. Willson and Ransom Reid have appraised the estate of Asa Dickey at $27,719.

General Matthew Arnold
In his "Memories" Hon. Stephen Colridge draws this picture of Matthew Arnold:

Of the poets I have known in the flesh he was by far the most interesting and charming. Full of humor and geniality, with a blend of the Olympian manner that was perfectly delightful to all who understood him! Children were never afraid of or shy with him, and he would discourse with them magnificently about their toys, assigning startling qualities to them with a twinkling gravity till the children discovered new wonders about the familiar playthings never before suspected.

He persuaded my son Johnnie, when he was about three years old, that he, Matthew Arnold, was his horse and kept up the joke at succeeding visits and sent him books with inscriptions "Johnnie, from his affectionate horse."

LOCAL SPEED DISTURBERS RIGHT BUSY

Davenport and Ballard Taking in the Twenty-four Mile an Hour Travelers

The city's two motorcycle officers, Davenport and Ballard, have been doing a rushing business the last day or two, and it is the intention of the city authorities that they shall keep up the pace in order to persuade all drivers of automobiles and motorcycles that Santa Ana anti-speed laws are meant to be obeyed. Ballard has just been added to the force to aid Davenport in carrying on a campaign to reduce the average rate of speed maintained on Santa Ana streets by motor vehicles.

The motorcycle officers have been taking automobilists in when going around twenty-five miles an hour. The fine for fast driving of an automobile is $10. It seems that a motorcycleist for some reason generally gets off with $5 as a fine.

The report of the motorcycle officers to City Marshal Jernigan follows:

W. Hartman, going twenty-six miles an hour on North Main street, arrested by Davenport, fined $10.

John Lemke, arrested by Ballard, to appear Saturday.

A. B. West, going twenty-four miles an hour, arrested by Davenport, fined $10.

C. J. Dwarak, arrested by Davenport, going twenty-four miles an hour, discharged by city recorder because it was a first offense.

C. W. Monahan, arrested by Ballard, going thirty miles an hour on South Main, fined $10.

TWO BOYS ESCAPE FROM DETENTION HOME, STILL FREE

Yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock Raymond Bowman, aged 12, and Ernest Martinez, aged 10, climbed over the back fence of the Detention Home and escaped. Efforts to locate them up to noon today had failed. The Martinez lad, a Spanish boy, came from El Modena. The Bowman boy's home is in San Diego. He ran away recently, and was caught last Thursday by Constable Jackson.

The Mexican boy was bare-footed and wore overalls. The San Diego boy had no coat. Neither had any money.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 18.—Dr. Royal Christ, arrested on Saturday in connection with charges made by Carol Mason, a 15-year-old motion picture actress, was arraigned today before Justice Summerfield. His preliminary hearing was set for August 26.

Unexpected Answers

The French government, wishing to obtain definite statistics on points relating to certain Turkish provinces, sent blanks with questions to be answered to the provincial governors. The replies received from the pasha of Damascus are worth quoting:

Q.—What is the death rate in your province? A.—In Damascus it is the will of Allah that all should die. Some die young and some die old.

Q.—What is the annual number of births? A.—God alone can say. I do not know and hesitate to inquire.

Q.—Are the supplies of water sufficient and of good quality? A.—From the remotest period no one has died in Damascus of thirst.

General remarks as to the local situation: Man should not bother himself or his brother with questions that concern only God.
